

Helping your Child through Transition to Secondary School

We know that life is not normal at the moment due to Coronavirus however we recognise that parents/carers still need information to support their child. At this time of year, the School Nursing Service usually offers each school a parent/carer information session 'supporting your child through transition'. These sessions aim to provide reliable information and access to resources to help you to talk to your child and prepare them for moving to secondary school. We know this can sometimes be a worrying time for both parents/carers and children. We want to support you to have these conversations with your child and prepare them. These sessions will focus on health and wellbeing of your child.

We cannot come into schools at the moment because of social distancing guidance. However, we can offer these sessions virtually. We are offering video sessions via Microsoft Teams which is a safe application used by the NHS.

The workshop will cover:

- Supporting your child to settle into school
- Thinking about your child's health
- Supporting your child's independence
- Top tips for parents

The Sessions will be offered on:
