

QUESTIONS

1. Read the first paragraph: Describe marine life in your own words.

2. Read the first paragraph: What does the word 'reside' mean?

to eat

to live

to rest

3. Highlight or underline the part of the text below that tells you that there may be many more species that exist underwater than 240,470?

The World Register of Marine Species reports that there are 240,470 accepted species but this is believed to be only a small fraction of what really exists underwater.

4. Write a description about the appearance of an anglerfish.

5. Read the passage about the blobfish. Which word means the same as 'enormous'?

6. Which areas of the world do blobfish inhabit?

7. Explain how a sand striker catches its prey.

8. What does a blue whale feed on?

9. What do you think the term 'endangered species' means?

10. Which sea creatures are predators to flying fish?

11. Describe what plankton is?

12. How does the shape of a flying fish's body help it to escape from predators?

13. Fill in the table below including 2 key facts about each of the marine life.

1. anglerfish	1.
	2.
2. blobfish	1.
	2.
3. sand striker	1.
	2.
4. blue whale	1.
	2.
5. flying fish	1.
	2.

14. True or false?

	True	False
Anglerfish can only eat prey smaller than themselves.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Barbados was known as The land of the flying fish.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Blue whales eat other mammals.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Sand strikers are found in the waters of the Arctic Ocean.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
When in its own habitat, blobfish actually appear more like a typical bony fish.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>