

Classes taught the basics of quick and efficient typing using '2Type'.

All classes complete a project on E-Safety (produce a brochure using Purple Mash).

Classes given knowledge and understanding to create simple and more complex animations.

Children's computing work is displayed around school and on Purple Mash.

Take part in 'Hour of Code' and 'Computer Science Week'.

Computing at Little Bloxwich

Take part in national E-Safety days.

To master coding skills, children have the chance to explore program design and put computational thinking into practice.

Class laptops/iPads for children to use.

Introduced to making music digitally (using '2Sequence').

High quality computing work evidenced in each year group.

Children have learned how to safely use email with '2Email'.

Children given the opportunity to use and develop their computing skills across the curriculum.

Children given access to Times Table Rockstars and Purple Mash.